Shortage in [] Station Funds

1. The Auditor-in-Chief, KUBARK, is being requested to initiate a formal audit of the financial accounts of your station for the purpose of confirming the amount of unaccounted for funds. It is expected that a representative of the Office of Audit will visit your station for this purpose within the next few weeks. You will be advised of the identity of the auditor and the date of his visit as soon as his plans are made known to us.

2. In view of the proposed audit of your station, action on the request contained in your dispatch of 2 November 1954 is being withheld until results of the audit are determined.
